

Introduction to the Grants Process

The Women's Giving Circle of Cumberland County is an established philanthropic women's organization in Cumberland County. The Women's Giving Circle held its first grant cycle in spring of 2009.

What is the Women's Giving Circle of Cumberland County?

The Women's Giving Circle is a charitable fund established by the Cumberland Community Foundation. The Women's Giving Circle seeks to empower women to be contributors, educate donors, and make a positive change for women and children throughout Cumberland County. Assets of the Women's Giving Circle are held and maintained at the Cumberland Community Foundation. Members serve as an advisory panel to oversee the administration of funds.

The mission of the Women's Giving Circle is to build and encourage philanthropy in women, engage all generations, and encourage women to be more intentional with their giving.

Who We Are: The Women's Giving Circle of Cumberland County consists of women of all ages and backgrounds residing in Cumberland County who come together, pool their contributions, and make joint funding decisions.

How We Give: Each member contributes $550 annually for a minimum of three years. This helps women to realize philanthropy is a lifetime venture and helps provide stability to the funds of the Women's Giving Circle.

Funding Priorities - The Women's Giving Circle of Cumberland County awards high-impact grants to programs or projects focusing on women and children in Cumberland County, N.C.

As the pandemic has exacerbated the situation of many women and children in our community, the following Focus Areas have been selected for the 2020-2022 grant cycles:

Basic Needs

- Financial insecurities (home, job, food, healthcare)
- Educational insecurities (literacy, financial literacy, academic)

Child Security

- Child abuse
- Foster care
- Childcare insecurity

Special considerations will be given to programs or projects that incorporate any of the following:

- Programs or projects that demonstrate the ability to achieve measurable results and have a high probability of successful continuation beyond the grant period
- Programs or projects that impact a larger population will be given priority
- Opportunities to collaborate and foster partnerships, as well as leverage other funding sources
- New, creative approach to a critical community need
